DEADLINES

May 6 Everyone's e-mail addresses need to be given to Theresa Johnson, so they can be posted on the web. We will be using them for future

communications. We will only use with your permission.

June 1st Final registration for who is attending. We need this to start coordinating activities and for how many goody bags will need to be made.
Aunt Renie will be putting them together.

-List of shirt sizes and colors for each family. Contact Sharon Riedmann with your size information she will be handling the actual order. E-mail maymonkey@aol.com

-A biography of each family needs to be turned in. Who will be collecting this information is not known as of this writing. Each family will be asked to put together a biography which will be included in a Riedmann family memory book. You may be as original as you'd like, although some type of format may be given later. Things to consider including are: who is in your family, how you met and when you were married, interesting anecdotes about the kids and their growing up, anything interesting in your lives that got you where you are today, what are you doing now, or what will you be doing in the near future. Be as detailed as you want.

We will let you know soon who to send them to in order to put them into a book.

July 6th: PARTY

For those of you, who won't be able to make it this year, don't fear. Your absence will be the primary topic of discussion. Enough that down the road everyone will think you were there.

Please check out the web pages for more interesting information.

News as of 2/10/02

It's 2002 and time to start thinking about thawing out the brats and warming up the grill.

The family elders, Irene VanMoorleghem, George and Betty Riedmann, Al and Shirley Riedmann and Lou Riedmann are meeting monthly to lay out plans for the 2002 reunion. Bob and Fran Garvin, the Panowicz and Elsasser families will also be in on the festivities, of course. This much is known and more will be displayed as details are determined, soon we'll need the help of everyone, especially of you living in Omaha.

The Place:

Lou and Sharon Riedmann (The White Castle on the Lake), South of Bellevue, NE

Entertainment:

Tours including the Omaha Botanical Garden, the Riedmann family herb garden (come and see your name immortalized in brick), golf and other events to be determined.

SPECIAL
GRAND OPENING
BY 6/28
TO AL R
@ 5:00

Goody Bags :

What are goody bags? When did this start, and who started it? I think Franny.

Something you donate to the bag. Something meaningful and of course FUN in your life. Example: A pen from work, of course, you have to have enough for everybody. How many is that. As of now I really don't have a count, but hopefully be the next newsletter I will have one for you. (Perhaps 50-100)

Volunteers:

We are in need of people to help with handling, a new cookbook, family stories, games (how about a family trivia contest), or anything else you think of. If anyone has any particular ideas they would be willing to coordinate, or wish to put your special talents to use on one of the above projects, please give Lisa Lackovic a call 896-0900.

A page will be created soon showing all those who are planning on attending. We will include your home address, look

TUG-A-WARR

phone or email address if you wish; we're also open on suggestions on how to make this site more informative. Contact Chip Riedmann, e-mail criedmann@conl.com

Date June 19, 2002

Riedmann Reunion Saturday July 6, 2002 After 1:00

Dinner: Provided by South Omaha's Eddies Café' including roast pork, sausages, sauerkraut and dumplings, green beans, rye bread, potato and fruit salad. Hot dogs and Stoysich wieners on a bun will be available for the kids. Plates, napkins, utensils and condiments will be provided. Dinner will be served 5:00 till 6:30.

Beverages: Pop, Kool Aid, iced tea, coffee, keg beer furnished by the Riedmann elders, and homemade German pilsner furnished by Chip Riedmann. BYOB if you wish.

Snacks and Desserts: Snacks will be provided by the families of George Riedmann, Elsassers, and Lou Riedmann's families. Desserts will be provided by the Panowicz, Van Moorleghems, and Al Riedmann's family. You will be contacted by your elders on what to bring. Please bring your dish ready to go as there will be little room to prepare anything.

PARKING: It will be limited. Please carpool when possible. There maybe some parking available at neighbor's cabins. Remember; do not block the road, driveways of other vehicles, unless you have their permission.

SWIMMING: Bring your suits, beach towels, beach chairs, and life jackets if needed. Life jackets are required for anyone under six, or anyone that cannot swim. Each family will be responsible for their own kids.

BOATING: There will not be any water skiing from our house because of boat traffic and the large crowd that will be on our beach.

PICTURE: Bring your cameras! This only happens every 10 years. A group picture will be taken a around 4:30. Please wear your reunion t-shirt so we all know who goes with who.

FIREWORKS: For safety reasons, daytime fireworks and nighttime fireworks will be allowed up on the dyke only. EACH FAMILY WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN.

Omaha Botanical Garden Tour

Friday, July 5th 2002

2:00

Cost: Adults- $5.00, Children (6-12)- $3.00, Children under 6 free, members free. RSVP to Al Riedmann at (402) 697-0523 by June 28th.

Miscellaneous Information

If anyone is in need of some accommodations for their stay in Omaha, call Gary and Kathy Elsasser. They may be able to arrange a nice place to stay. Speaking of which, the elders would like to know where those of you from out-of-town are staying if you are not at a relative's. Makes keeping contact with you during your stay better. (We promise we won't sneak into your room and short-sheet your beds.)

Hope you all sent your biography's to Al Riedmann, if not do it now you still have time. Please contact him. His address is 3507 S. 120 St. Omaha, NE 68144 or e-mail him at ariedmann@npdodge.com. Please do not include them as part of the e-mail. He is going to print them exactly as they come to him.

GOODY BAGS

Aunt Renie has decided to make two kinds of goody bags, one for adults and one for kids. Send your goodies to her at 6413 S. 102nd St. Omaha, NE 68127. She needs to receive them by June 25th. Her family has kindly volunteered to assist her with getting the bags put together. Over 100 are coming and we're still counting!

VOLUNTEERS!

We still need volunteers to help with the handling of special events you think should be included to make the day more special. Family trivia game, golf, tug-of-war, funniest baby pictures, best family story, kid's game, you name it. Call Lisa Lackovic at 896-0900 with suggestions that you would like to coordinate, or any special talents your have to help with other events. What we all get out of the party is proportional to that we put into it.

T-SHIRTS

T-shirts have been ordered. I will be giving the shirts to the elder of the family. Colors are:

George -dark green,

Al-dark blue

Lou-purple

Panowicz- black

Elsasser- red
